Criteria for Awards of Excellence from Sponsors

1. The excellence awards will be given to a deserving librarian who is a member of ABR and works in a university library, central university library, school library, or public library.

2. The awards will not be given to any active member of the ABR Board of Directors.

3. Prizes will not be awarded in a tie situation (ex-aequo).

4. If no librarian submits their candidacy, the ABR Board of Directors will have the discretion to decide how to designate the recipients of the excellence awards.

5. The criteria for awarding prizes will include the candidate's librarianship and technological skills, involvement in projects, responsibilities assumed, and results achieved in the last three years of activity.

6. A representative of the sponsor will also be part of the commission for analyzing the application files and may establish additional criteria during the evaluation process.

7. Applications must be submitted to the ABR secretariat or to an address designated by the organizers of the national conference, by the deadline of August 24, 2025.
